of thanks, Mr. Croston,
for a great year
Class of '75

This gift Richard Lee with

September, 1958 — a young and enthusiastic man with twinkling eyes and a crooked smile becomes a teacher in the history department at Melrose High School.

Spring 1970 — There's an opening for an assistant principalship in the high school . . . in typically Crostonian fashion, the man who seemed a permanent member of the history department, moves into his new office. . . . "Behold the turtle who only makes progress when he sticks his neck out."

September 1970 — Fate drops double sessions onto Melrose Junior and Senior High Schools. Claude Croston is deposed to the Junior High where he promptly becomes fond of the Class of '75.

September 1971 — Another year to weather. And then, as the Class of '75 heads toward high school . . . "I'm goin' right up the ladder with you, you're my babies!"

September 1972 — Everyone watches breathlessly as the new high school grows inch by inch and the Class of '75 prays to be its first graduating class. "Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow . . . "

September 1973 — Lines of tardy students pour out of Mr. Croston's office and down the hall. "Why do the juniors always have to stay after?" . . . "I don't care if it's 7:00 a.m. or 12 midnight — get on that phone and call your mother!" . . . "I didn't mean to yell at you, but . . . "

July 1974 — MR. CROSTON NAMED PRINCIPAL

"Ain't it good to know you've got a friend?"

September 4, 1974 Senior Assembly — . . . You're gonna be happy. I don't want anymore of this snob baloney, we're gonna be like one big happy family! Do you understand me? I want happy kids!! There are gonna be some changes made around here! I don't want just a good high school, I want the best high school in the WORLD!!!! And I want you to be the best class in the world!!!!

"And in between what might have been
And what has come to pass,
A misbegotten guess alas
and bits of broken glass"

"I've been searching for my dream
One hundred times today
I build them up, you knock them down
Like they were made of clay."

"Then the tide rushes in
And washes my castles away
And I'm really not so sure
On which side of the bed
I should lay."

DESIDERATA

O PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HAST &
REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrendering on your part to such persons. Break not quietly & clearly & when you are alone, before the world, & do not they too have their voices? & do not they too speak?
they are very wise. But if you break not quietly you may be silent & still & know you have done well.
greater & fewer persons. This is not to say that you are not as well as you can be. Keep however in your own quiet, however lonely, & in reality you will be having fortune of time. Everyone can have a bad day. & the world is full of them. But if the next day comes, & there is still so many persons & things & life, and everyone's life is full of horrors. & Be not afraid. Especially do not fear affliction.
Neither be cynical about it. For the face of all anxiety & disenchantment is as peaceful as the grass. & Take kindly the counsel of the great gravel. By surrendering the things of youth Nature strengthens you to shield you in sudden misfortune.
But do not distract yourself with imagined fears. Many fears are born of fatigued & lone lives. Be on a law of the universe, no less gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars. & I have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. & Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your
I. & With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is a wonderful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

FOOTBALL

36-24-36 — HIKE! The Melrose High football team, led by Captain Phil Pierce, kicked off to a fantastic start this year by defeating Lexington, 44-7. Captained by Ted Baier, Chris DeChristopher, and Paul Laverty, this year's varsity baaters completed their most successful season in M.H.S. soccer histary. The talent and spirit of the team led them to a fine record of 9 wins, 5 losses, and 2 ties. The narrow loss of only one game prevented them from qualifying far state competition. Highlights of the season were the exciting 2-1 last secand victory over Lexington, and the two wins against Winchester. Melrose High has always taken great pride in its hockey tradition. This year's version has left nothing to be desired, for the Raiders combined to produce superb team and individual efforts. Led by Tri-Captains Mike O'Hara, Ted Baier, and Roger Conway, the team compiled a 14-2-2 season record which ranked them second in the Middlesex League and qualified them for the State Tournament. The tremendous contributions of five team-mates caused them to be named as League All-Stars, including Brian Hughes, the high scorer with 38 points. The season started with a six game unbeaten streak and was marred only by the two losses to Burlington and Winchester. The most outstanding game was against Woburn, in which the Raiders exploded for two last minute goals to tie the game 4-4. The team scored 100 goals in all, an usual feat for which they are to be highly commended.

Led by outstanding Co-Captains Don Chiuve and Bill Killilea, the 1975 Boys' Basketball team had a fine year with a 12-7 record. Adding to a good season, and much to everyone's surprise, the team qualified for the State Tournament. The big three, Don Chiuve, Bill Killilea and Pat Stanton carried the team throughout the entire season. Don finished the year fifth leading scorer in the league while Bill finished third. Assistant Captain, Pat Stanton, contributed excellent ball handling. Also proving to be important keys to the team's success were Ken Charlton, John Jacobson, and Neal Jones. Jeff Smith and Kevin Page saw playing time as substitutes.

Congratulations to this year's team for a season that will long be remembered.

They were, however, persistent in their enthusiasm, hard work, and determination throughout the entire season. The LOG wishes good luck to the team next year and to the outgoing seniors Scott Hayward, David O'Connell, Dan Glynn, Liz Shanklin, and Co-Captains Alice Barber and Charlie Gill.

WINTER TRACK

... There are few teams that can face snow, slush, and freezing temperatures and still do well. But thanks to super spirit and unending determination, the Melrose Winter Track team finished with a record of 7-2, placing third in the league. The season was highlighted by the defeat of their arch-rival, the formerly invincible Wakefield. And to add a last feather to their cap — Hal Moulton, Bruce Wenner, and Tony Maccario all placed fifth in the State Meet.

THE TOP BANANAS AND THE BUNCH

Once upon a time, there was a banana tree. On the tree there were five bunches, and on each bunch there was a top banana. One day, somebody came along, dug up the tree by the roots and left it homeless. Where would the poor banana tree go?

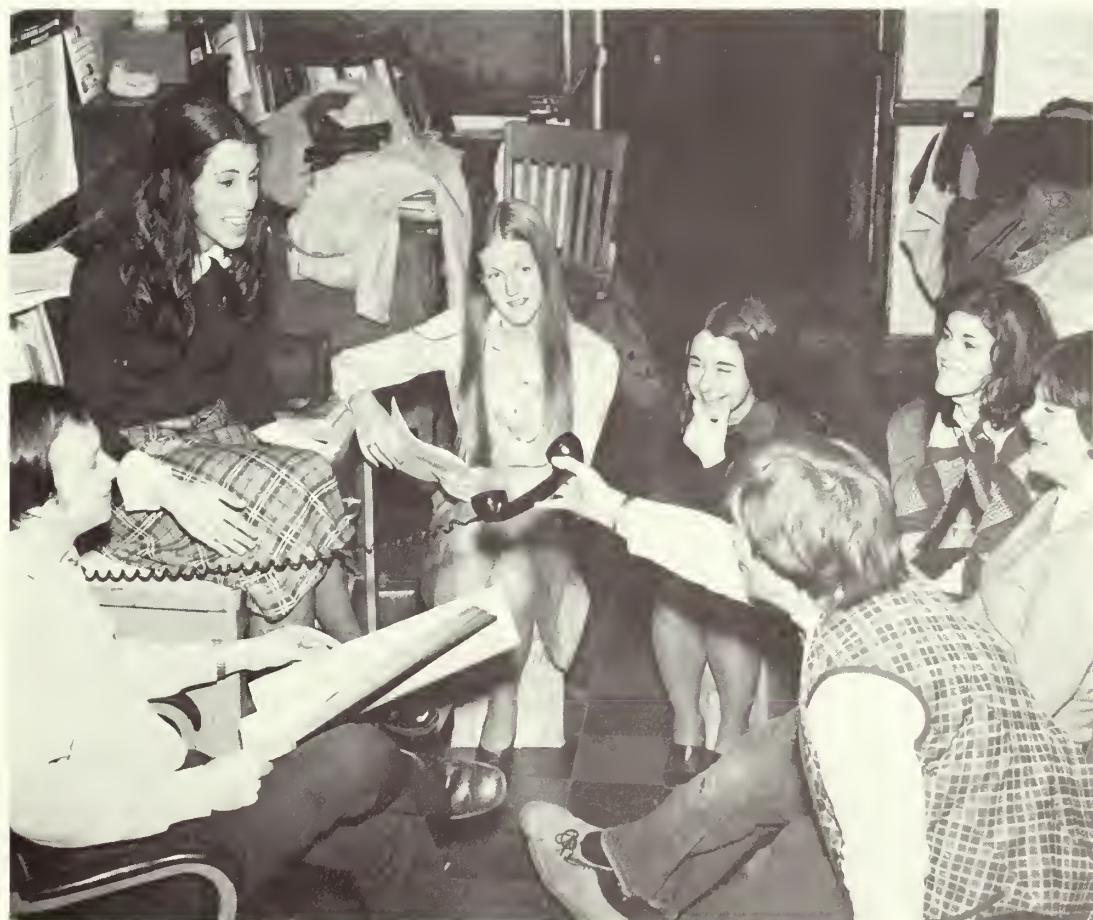

After many weeks of searching, the poor tree found a home. It replanted itself and soon a wild jungle grew up around it — so thick that it could not be penetrated by the normal person. (Although it was frequently penetrated by the "not-normal".) In the midst of savages and despite constant bombardment, the banana tree kept on growing, which just goes to show — "If you wanna be a top banana, you gotta start at the bottom of the bunch."

. . . Who ever heard of the Regional Advisory Council? Far the un-in-formed — each school in Massachusetts elects a representative and these students meet as a group, working on a wide variety of issues and problems in their high schools. . . . In 1971, a law was passed by the Massachusetts State Legislature that lets the "students' voice" be heard. Meeting at least four times a year with the men in the "White House" on West Foster St., the students go through a lot of work and a lot of frustrations to get their proposals passed. Last year, the Student Advisory Council was responsible for getting a student smoking area. This year they have made a variety of recommendations and obtained a Students' Rights and Responsibilities Bill

SMOKING COMMITTEE

The Smoking Committee was formed this year as a result of the acquisition of two designated areas available for student smoking between class periods. The members of the committee are responsible for keeping the indicated areas clean at all times. Their only reward — the privilege of being one minute late to class. Due to student cooperation and a job well done by the smoking committee, the smoking privilege for Melrose High students will in all probability be continued . . .

SKI CLUB

Wer will skilaufen?
Dann, gehen Sie nach Österreich. This year's ski club members have been waxing their skis and putting on their "winter woolies", preparing for a weekend at Jay Peak in March . . . and . . . another trip to Austria during the February vacation. Wo ist das Hotel, bittle?

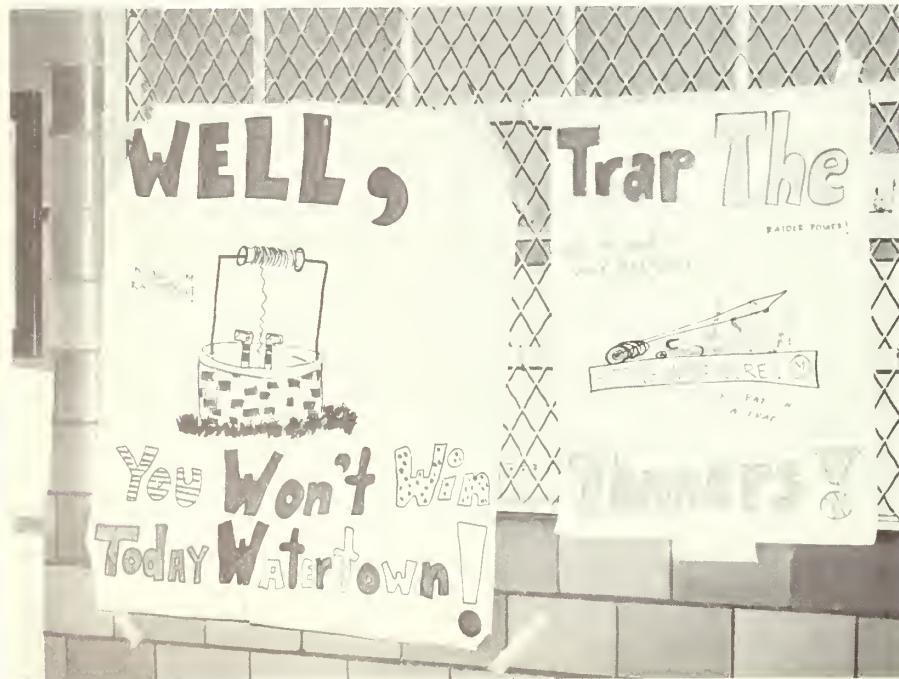

For those who are interested in cross-country skiing, lessons have been offered under the expert instruction of Mr. Gordon.

Hail, hail the gang's all here! . . . Despite all the shortages in the rest of the country, there was no shortage of cheers or decorations from the M.H.S. Pep Club. Their inexhaustable energy supply kept them going through all sports games, rallies, dances, decorations, posters, sales, and their Annual Senior Athletic Banquet. Members will never forget early sunrises and unsuccessful attempt at being sneaky . . . Rin-Tin-Tin strikes again! . . . and Mr. McIntyre always being there when you need him.

"This is your left foot, this is your right" ... October 12th will be remembered always ... "Hello new uniforms!!!! The first since 1947!!" ... "I don't have any pants" ... "I lost my music; where's my instrument???" ... memories of the good ol' days ... "Crosby's back!" ... "aaaaahhh" ... the last football game ...

FLAG

A new addition to the M.H.S. half-time show is the flag squad which entertains the crowd with its brightly colored banners. "All our thanks to Mr. D."

Once again the M.H.S. Glee Club has demonstrated their talent in many ways. Their exciting season included caroling, their annual December party at the Heritage Home, and the traditional Christmas Vespers. This year, for the first time ever, the Glee Club sponsored a talent show in which various clubs displayed their versatility through skits, pantomimes, and songs. The year ended with the Glee Club's Annual Spring Concert. . .naturally a success, thanks to Roger Gagnon.

ORCHESTRA

As every year, the M.H.S. Girls Club sponsored their annual Powderpuff football game. T.R., the cheerleader measuring 55-32-32, and the rest of his opps . . . her cheering squad, entertained the crowd with their version of M.H.S. cheers while the girls frantically tried to remember their plays.

GIRLS' CLUB

The Girls' Club of Melrose High, although getting a slow start at the beginning of the year, came on strong realizing this year is their 50th anniversary. The Powder Puff game, which raised the most money ever towards the Scholarship Fund, was a great start to this year's events. The Mother-Daughter Christmas Tea brought back memories as Mr. McPheters, original founder of the Girls' Club, entertained everyone with his stories and poems. What better way to end the year than a banquet celebrating the clubs' 50th anniversary.

Non-Jocks: Unite

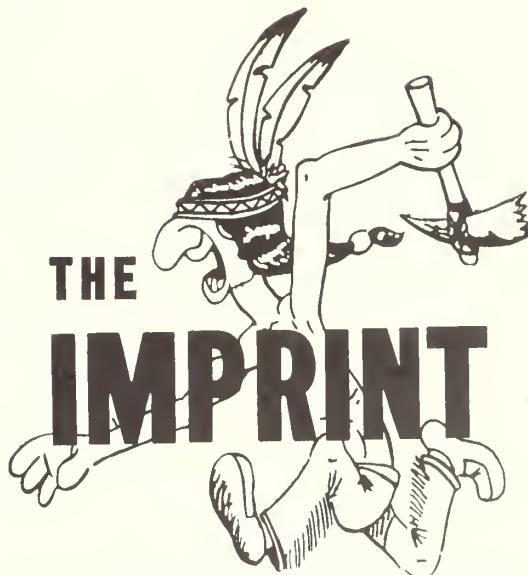

The purpose of this editorial is not to put down the jocks in this school, but to reassure the non-jock population that they are not alone.

There exists at MHS certain myths about the aura of jockism which need dispelling. One is the image (circa 1952) that high school, and especially the senior year, are curious institutions created for cheerleaders and football stars. Unfortunately, some people have not yet realized that there is a group within the school which truly believes that there is more to life than pompoms and pigskin.

Myth number two — jocks are not as well loved as they think they are. True, they are popular, but within certain limits. Their popularity extends only to the periphery of their own cliques. Not everyone wants to be a jock. Other people have other interests which are just as important to them.

There is nothing wrong with playing football, and there is nothing wrong with cheerleading. The point is that the football team, the cheerleaders and their entire clique comprise a small percentage of the student population, which until now has received a high percentage of attention. It is high time that someone realized that beneath the facade of Jocksville, USA, there are some very real people at Melrose High School who do some very interesting things (besides playing football and cheerleading.)

DRAMA SOCIETY

The Drama Society of Melrose started off the year with a new advisor, Ms. May. Following the tradition of the Great Moose and The Albino Moose, they had their "pot-luck" supper to help get to know the officers as well as one another. The talent of the group will be displayed in the spring in the club's production of "I Never Saw Another Butterfly".

The Majorettes unmistakably proved their talent throughout the football season. Under the leadership of Chris Murphy and Betsy Blacher and the assistance of their advisor Judy Simpson, the routines added an enlightening and exhilarating dimension to halftime shows as well as rallies. Endless practices, front hall firsts, and "Southern Man" bus rides will never be forgotten.

"We'll stay here until everyone does it perfectly —

I don't care if it takes all day!"

And it always did.

MODERN DANCE

The Modern Dance Club has had one of their most difficult years in their history. And yet, against all odds — they've had one of their finest years . . . "this must have been the best year ever" . . . fond memories of Roosevelt School . . . "everybody jive for 3 counts of 8" . . . early morning bake sales . . . "have you girls looked at the

SPANISH CLUB

. . . Que pasa, amigas? Mucha with the Spanish Club! Naw in its 8th year, the club helps in adding a continental tauch ta M.H.S. The Casa Ramera was a "spicy" way to start the year. Theaters, concerts, dinners, bake sales, tasting parties, a car wash and "La Pasada" at Christmas . . . el club espanol es muy bien! . . .

ITALIAN CLUB

Following the Italian tradition, the Italian Club started their year by eating . . . The European . . . Christmas was celebrated by a party and . . . ah . . . those Italian movies! As the year came to a close, a banquet was naturally in order . . . Eating again?!

FRENCH CLUB

. . . The French Club is alive and well and living in Melrose . . . If you substitute Jacques Brel for "the French Club" you will get the club's first activity of this year. Throughout the year, the club had a taste of "la douceur de la vie" . . . "Qui vivra, verra" . . . "Qui se ressemble s'assemble" . . . "tout est bien, qui finit bien" . . .

Dreaming as the days go by,
Dreaming as the summers die.

Ever drifting down the stream-
Lingering in the golden gleam-

*Is all our Life, then, but a dream
Seen faintly in the golden gleam Athwart Time's dark resistless stream?*

*Bowed to the earth with bitter woe,
Or laughing at some raree-show,
We flutter idly to and fro.*

*Man's little Day in haste we spend,
And, from its merry noontide, send
No glance to meet the silent end.*

Lewis Carroll
